ACADEMY MEMBERS

TONIGHT 8:00PM

ENEMY MINE

LITTLE THEATRE

Little Theatre, Twentieth Century Fox
10201 W. Pico Blvd., Los Angeles
R.S.V.P. at 203-3195 or 203-2504 between 9AM and 6PM.

TOMORROW 8:00PM

Plenty

LITTLE THEATRE

YOU AND A GUEST ARE INVITED TO A SCREENING.

20th Century Fox

© 1985 TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX

ACADEMY MEMBERS

MGM/UA PROUDLY PRESENTS FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION

TONIGHT
ROOM 24
8:00 PM

ALL SCREENINGS AT THE MGM/UA PRODUCERS BLDG.
3910 OVERLAND AVE.

© 1985 MGM-UA Entertainment Co.

PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

Motion Pictures

Alex D. Gartner joins Cinetudes Film Prods. Ltd. of New York as its director of development, production and acquisition. Prior to this he was with Satori Entertainment as director of business affairs.

Music

John Velasco named to the newly created post of music marketing vp for CBS Songs. Previously, Velasco was managing director of Cherry Lane Prods. Europe, director of Interworld's U.K. operation and managing director of United Artists Music U.K.

The Nashville Music Assn. names two: Angela J. Mahoney is director of media relations. She continues to work as a free-lance writer, retaining an independent office. Additionally, Mahoney will also serve as editor of NMA publications. . . . And Diane Rankin moves up to executive assistant. She worked as an intern for the NMA, as well as Sound Shop Studios and Aristo Music.

Gartner Velasco Mahoney Rankin

Mike Greenblatt joins RCA/Ariola International as a publicist. For the past two years he was senior account executive for the Press Office Ltd. Prior to that he served as managing editor and music editor for the Aquarian Weekly from 1977-83.

Video

Jim Gullo named public relations director for Media Home Entertainment. Gullo had previously been with Walt Disney Home Video as p.r. manager since mid-1984.

Broadcasting

Maurice Tunick promoted to vp-director of the ABC Talkradio Network. Associated with the NBC Radio Network for the past five years, he initiated the long-form programming format that evolved into Talknet and worked for NBC Radio Entertainment simultaneously as producer of Dr. Ruth Westheimer's show "Sexually Speaking."

Bill Smith, KTTV's "Midday News" anchor, will become weatherman for the station's 8 and 11 p.m. news effective Jan. 13. Prior to his four years as anchor and associate producer for the newscast, Smith's worked as an L.A. news reporter for 20 years on TV, radio and local newspapers.

Allied Industries

Ron Baird joins the Jim Halsey Co. as vp of Big Sky, Southwest and Midwest territories to be based in Tulsa, Okla. Most recently, Baird headed up his own agency in Missoula, Mont. He formerly worked as an agent for Halsey during 1978-79.

Music Motions of New York names two: Susan Hendryx joins as senior vp. . . . Andy Green takes on duties as director of information services. Greg McCoy continues as film services coordinator. The company distributes "Music Zaps" (music videos) to movie theaters internationally.

— Maureen McFadden

TRAVEL LOG

Shari Lewis in from Atlanta concert engagement.

Harry Blackstone in from New Jersey performances.

Melba Moore to New York via TWA for recording session.

Diana Scarwid wrapped a starring role in "Extremities" and jetted back to Savannah, Ga., via Delta Airlines.

J. Carter Gibson to New York for business meetings via Pan Am.

Tony Adams to Gstaad, Switzerland, to join Blake Edwards and Julie Andrews.

Tricia Daniels back to New York from L.A. business meetings.

Adrienne Barbeau to Kentucky.

Wil Shriner in from St. Louis.

The Commodores back from a 45-day Far East and Australian tour.

Grant Cramer to France.

Christopher Norris & Walter Danley to New York on American Airlines.

Christopher Hartman in from New York business meetings.

Sandra Joseph and Jim Gibson to Honolulu for business meetings.

1986.01.07 Allied Industries, Hollywood Reporter, Maureen McFadden, P16